

25 March 2022

Dear Parent/Carer

Year 9 options, Non-uniform day next Wednesday, Easter egg donations to Lincoln County Hospital, Community Action Group raffle tickets, Year 6 transition letter, Colours tie nominations

I hope my end of week letter finds you well and enjoying the sunshine. This week has seen a successful PD Day and an end to the mock examinations series at what is always a busy time in schools. As we approach the Easter break we still have lots to finalise and see through. More below:

Year 9 options

Final confirmation letters will be sent out next week to all students.

Non-uniform day next Wednesday

Although a message has already been sent out to families outlining the detail on this, I wanted to remind you all that this is taking place. On the same day we will also be holding our rewards afternoon for those students in possession of a golden ticket!

Easter egg donations to Lincoln County Hospital

Our students have been hard at work thinking of others over the past few weeks and this week has seen us deliver our eggs to LCH in advance of the end of term. It is so heart-warming to see our youngsters show such commitment to this initiative. They should be very proud of themselves, as are we.

Community Action Group raffle tickets

Next Tuesday, 29 March, will be the last day that raffle tickets are for sale if you wish to be in the draw for some wonderful prizes.

Year 6 transition letter

Mr Adlington has now sent out the first of our welcome letters for Year 6 youngsters joining us in September in Year 7. Once again, we are full with a large waiting list at this time. We will continue to write to the families of all new students every fortnight with new information.

Colours tie nominations

As ever, I am on the hunt for deserving colours tie nominees. These are available for outstanding service in music, drama, sport, charity fundraising and leadership. If there are any parents who have yet to nominate their child for a colours tie then please do so as soon as possible and definitely before close next Tuesday. Please send all nominations to Mrs Goffe at agoffe@srpa.co.uk. Ties will be given out during full school assembly next week.

Before signing off, I must wish the very best of luck to our Head of Humanities, Mrs White. This weekend, she has been invited to deliver at national level at the TeachMeet History Icons conference which will be livestreamed via Youtube. Her presentation is entitled 'Mapping Voices: developing diversity and inclusion across the curriculum'. This is a fantastic accolade and is testament to her hard work, dedication and pure quality as a passionate historian and academic. It is excellent that her work at SRPA in developing a world class curriculum has now been recognised. We wish her well for this wonderful experience!

As we move ever closer to the Easter break, I leave you with the words of Pablo Picasso who once said "The meaning of life is to find your gift. The purpose of life is to give it away."

Let's bring our community together for one final positive push to the break. Have a lovely weekend.

I will write again soon.

Yours faithfully
