Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Sir Robert Pattinson Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by telephoning or emailing the Academy for the attention of the Head of Centre.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to the Examinations Office or the Head of Centres PA. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 5 working days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must write to the Head of Centre detailing the name of the candidate, the name of the complainant, the nature of the complaint, and the grounds for the complaint. The complaint should identify the Centres failure to follow procedures as set out in the relevant policy, and/or issues in teaching and learning which have impacted the candidate. detail any steps which have already been taken to resolve the issue and what would be considered a good resolution to the issue.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of Centre will appoint a member of the Senior Leadership Team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within 2 working weeks.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must write to the Head of Centre detailing the grounds for appeal.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 5 working days.

The appeal will be referred to the Chair of Governors or a special Committee of the Governing body for consideration..

It will be the responsibility of the Chair of Governors or Committee to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
